

) (JUVENILE BOARD
) (GRAYSON COUNTY, TEXAS

CERTIFICATION OF A SECURE POST-ADJUDICATION FACILITY

BE IT REMEMBERED that on the 1st day of December, 2009, the Judges of the Juvenile Court and members of the Juvenile Board personally inspected the post-adjudication facility known as the Cooke, Fannin and Grayson County Juvenile Boot Camp, hereinafter referred to as boot camp, located at 86 Dyess, Denison, Grayson County, Texas. After previously adopting the Texas Administrative Code Standards for Facilities, Title 37, Chapter 343 post-adjudication standards promulgated by the Texas Juvenile Probation Commission and having previously approved and adopted local post-adjudication policy and procedure, the said Judges certify to Bill C. Bristow, Director of Juvenile Services, the Commissioner's Courts of Cooke, Fannin and Grayson Counties, to the Administrative Board and to Juvenile Courts having contractual agreements with the boot camp that the facility is suitable for the custody of up to 52 children in accordance with the Texas Family Code, Section 51.12 as amended.

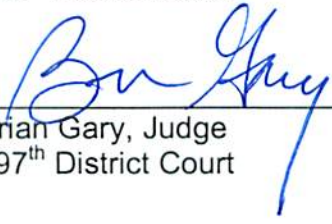

Rayburn M. Nall, Jr., Chairman
59th District Court

Jim Fallon, Judge
15th District Court

Lauri Blake, Judge
336th District Court

Drue Bynum, Judge
Grayson County, Judge

Brian Gary, Judge
397th District Court