Periodically, the Grayson County CSCD may have special community service projects available. Please check with your officer regarding these opportunities and to see if you qualify.

YOU MUST HAVE APPROVAL FROM YOUR COMMUNITY SUPERVISION OFFICER BEFORE PERFORMING CSR FOR THE FOLLOWING:

CSR Credit for GED Completion

Anyone who is on probation and does not possess either a high school diploma or GED may be allowed CSR credit for completing his or her GED. Credit will be given hour for hour (up to 20 hours) for attending GED classes with written documentation. Once you have completed your GED exam an additional 20 hours of CSR credit will be given. Credit will not be awarded for partial completion of the exam and you cannot receive credit for completing your GED prior to being placed on probation. Your assigned probation officer can provide you more details on the GED program. The maximum number of CSR hours allowed through this method is 40 hours.

CSR Credit for Parenting Classes

Anyone who is on probation and wants to better themselves by developing parenting skills may earn CSR credit for attending parenting classes. These classes teach things such as assertive discipline, active listening, stepfamily conflict management and setting consequences. This is an eight-week program and it is held at the Child & Family Guidance Clinic of Texoma, 804 E. Pecan Grove Road, Sherman Texas 75090. Each class costs $12.00 to attend. To obtain CSR credit for these classes you must complete all eight sessions, once completed, you may earn double CSR hours. To enroll in classes call 903-893-7768

CSR Credit for Literacy Programs

Anyone who is on probation and has difficulty reading or writing may qualify for CSR credit while attending literacy class. Probationers who are interested in this should see their officer for further information.

Types of Community Services

- * Manual Labor
- * Attendance and completion of programs referred to by your Community Supervision Officer
- * Completion of a GED certificate
- * Individual Assignments as directed by your Community Supervision Officer

Assignment of Community Service

Attached is a list of CSR work sites, once you have discussed your worksite with your CSO, it is your responsibility to contact someone on that list to set up all appointments and make arrangements for attending CSR events. Additional opportunities may be provided to you as the need arises according to the immediate needs of the community. You will be instructed by your CSO on these events and attendance requirements.

Appropriate Clothing

If your community service day will involve manual labor, you will need to wear clothing that you can get dirty and will not mind if it gets damaged. Otherwise clothes that are neat and clean will be appropriate for CSR activities. Shorts are acceptable in some cases but must not be more than 4 inches above the knees. No halter or tube tops, gang attire or T-shirts with drug/alcohol or gang symbols will be allowed. When you are working at a CSR site you are representing yourself and the Grayson County Probation Department; dress appropriately.

Missed CSR Activity

If you are scheduled to attend an activity and are unable to do so due to illness or family emergency, it is your responsibility to contact your probation officer the next business day to explain your absence and provide documentation if required.

Behavior

Disrespectful attitudes or improper behavior will not be tolerated at CSR work sites. Individuals may not curse or be disrespectful to work site staff. NO HORSEPLAY! Failure to follow these rules or any other rules of the CSR program could result in further sanction by the courts for violation of your probation. Violating the rules of a CSR site will result in your officer assigning you to a particular site of their choosing to work your hours. Further, you will not be eligible for any special projects.

Additional Questions

Call your Community Supervision Officer if you have any concerns or questions about Community Service.

COMMUNITY SERVICE RELEASE AND ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF HANDBOOK

I, _____, the undersigned, hereby acknowledge that I am performing non-salaried volunteer work for one or more eligible agencies selected by the Department of Community Supervision and Corrections as a form of community service. In consideration of being afforded this opportunity to perform said volunteer work, I do hereby fully release and hold harmless said Department of Community Supervision and Corrections, its director and agents, as well as any eligible community service agency with which I am laced from any and all liability, claims or demands against it which may arise as the result of any act or omission connected with my community service work. I further understand that I am not covered by Workman’s Compensation Insurance. I further warrant that no promise, statement or agreement not herein expressed, has been made to me and that I fully understand this instrument and execute same with full knowledge of its meaning, having first read it carefully.

Probationer

I, the undersigned, also authorize the Grayson County Department of Community Supervision and Corrections to release information contained in my probation file to the CSR worksite as it pertains to my successful completion of said hours. This consent will remain in effect and cannot be revoked by me until there has been a formal and effective termination of my probation or I have completed all of my assigned community service hours.
