

*Grayson County
Health Department
Lake Texoma*

No Blue-Green Algae Advisory

The amount of Blue-Green Algae Toxins in Lake Water is Below Detectable Levels or Substantially below Amounts Thought to Cause Injury to People or Pets if Water is Swallowed.

- Based on the most recent water tests and available human or pet health data, no health risks associated with blue-green algae are evident
- All forms of lake recreation are encouraged