ALTERNATIVES/RECOMMENDATIONS:
GRAYSON COUNTY REGIONAL MOBILITY AUTHORITY

ETHICS & COMPLIANCE POLICY

I. General Statement of Policy

The Grayson County Regional Mobility Authority (“GCRMA”) is committed to conducting its business in an ethical, honest, and open manner and to maintaining high ethical standards among its officers and employees. In furtherance of that commitment, the GCRMA adopts the Ethics & Compliance Policy set forth herein.

In addition to complying with the requirements of this Policy, GCRMA officers and employees must at all times abide by applicable federal and state laws and regulations, the GCRMA bylaws, and GCRMA policies.

II. Employee Code of Conduct

Employees of the GCRMA and/or employees of Grayson County working on behalf of the GCRMA (collectively, “Employees”) are expected to conduct the business of the authority in an open, honest, and ethical manner. Employees must adhere to the highest standards of ethical conduct in the performance of their responsibilities and must refrain from engaging in any activity that could raise questions as to the honesty or integrity of the GCRMA or damage the GCRMA’s reputation or credibility. Employees must at all times comply with the Grayson County Employee Handbook, a copy of which is attached as Attachment “A”, including, without limitation, the policies on Equal Employment Opportunity, Harassment, Use of County Equipment, and Fraud, Misconduct and Dishonesty. Additionally, Employees must comply with the standards of conduct set forth below.

Conflicts of Interest

Employees are prohibited from engaging in any activity that could create a conflict of interest or even the appearance of a conflict of interest with the Employee’s duties and responsibilities to the GCRMA. Activities that could create a conflict of interest include, but are not limited to:

1. Transaction of GCRMA business with any entity in which the Employee is an officer, agent, member, or owner of a controlling interest;

2. Participation in a GCRMA project in which the Employee has a direct or indirect monetary interest;

3. Outside business or professional activities that could interfere with the Employee’s performance of duties on behalf of the GCRMA or impair the Employee’s independence of judgment with respect to the Employee’s performance of GCRMA duties;
4. Personal investments that are likely to create a substantial conflict between the Employee’s private interest and the interest of the GCRMA; and

5. Any activity that could result in the disclosure of confidential or sensitive information that the Employee has access to as a result of the Employee’s position with the GCRMA.

If an Employee is uncertain as to whether a particular activity could create a conflict of interest, the Employee should consult the GCRMA’s General Counsel prior to engaging in the activity.

Gifts and Honoraria

Employees are prohibited from accepting gifts, favors, benefits, or other compensation, whether in the form of money or other thing of value, which could influence them or even have the appearance of influencing them in the performance of their official duties. Employees may accept meals offered in the course of normal business relationships. Additionally, Employees may accept promotional items that do not exceed an estimated $25 in value and are distributed as a normal means of advertising.

Employees may not accept an honorarium for appearing at a conference, workshop seminar, or symposium as an official representative of the GCRMA other than reimbursement for food, transportation, or lodging.

If an Employee is uncertain as to whether he or she may accept a gift, favor, or benefit, the Employee should consult the GCRMA’s General Counsel prior to acceptance.

Criminal Activity

The GCRMA will perform criminal background checks on all final applicants for any position involving the disbursement of GCRMA funds or the handling of cash, checks or credit cards; negotiable documents and materials; or highly confidential or sensitive information. All applicants admitting a felony conviction on their application materials will also be subject to a criminal background check. Additionally, the GCRMA may at its discretion perform criminal background checks on applicants for any other position.

If an Employee is charged with a felony or a misdemeanor other than a traffic violation, the Employee is required to immediately inform the Director or Chairman of the GCRMA. The GCRMA may take steps to respond to criminal violations consistent with Section V below, up to and including termination of employment.

Records Retention and Open Records

Employees must maintain all GCRMA records for at least the minimum amount of time prescribed by the records retention schedules applicable to local governmental entities adopted by the Texas State Library and Archives Commission. In the event that litigation is filed against the GCRMA or is reasonably anticipated to be filed, the GCRMA’s General Counsel may determine that it is necessary to implement a litigation hold in order to ensure the preservation of all records related to the lawsuit. Employees must refrain from destroying any records that are... the subject of a litigation hold. Additionally, Employees must comply with all records retention policies adopted by the GCRMA.

Members of the public may make written requests for records maintained by the GCRMA. In the event that an Employee receives a written request for information, the Employee must notify the Director immediately so that the GCRMA can respond to the request within the time frame prescribed by the Texas Public Information Act. Employees must refrain from destroying any records that are the subject of a pending public information request.

Acknowledgement

All Employees must sign an acknowledgment, in the form attached as Attachment “B”, acknowledging that they have received, read, and understand this Code of Conduct and that they will comply with the requirements herein.

III. Training Regarding Ethics & Compliance Standards

Upon beginning service or employment with the GCRMA, all officers and Employees shall be provided with an a copy of this Ethics & Compliance Policy and shall receive orientation on ethics laws and policies. Additionally, officers and Employees of the GCRMA shall receive periodic training on the requirements of this Ethics & Compliance Policy and on ethics issues generally.

IV. Oversight & Reporting of Suspected Violations

The Director and the Chairman of the GCRMA are responsible for monitoring and enforcing compliance with this Ethics & Compliance Policy and have full authority over all Employee functions and activities concerning the GCRMA.

If an officer or Employee becomes aware of a suspected violation of this Ethics & Compliance Policy, a violation of law, or a breach of fiduciary duty by any officer, Employee, or agent of the GCRMA, he or she must immediately report the suspected violation to the Director or Chairman of the GCRMA. Retaliation against those who come forward to raise concerns or report suspected violations will not be tolerated by the GCRMA.

V. Internal Audits & Monitoring

The GCRMA will conduct annual internal audits and other risk evaluations to monitor compliance and assist in the reduction of identified problem areas.

VI. Enforcement & Response to Offenses

Conduct that violates state or federal law or this Ethics & Compliance Policy or that discredits or interferes with operations of the GCRMA will not be tolerated and may result in an Employee’s immediate dismissal. Additionally, Employees are subject to discipline and dismissal under the terms of the Grayson County Employee Handbook.
Examples of behavior that may result in an Employee’s immediate dismissal include, but are not limited to:

- gross negligence of job duties
- theft or misuse of GCRMA or Grayson County property
- fraud, dishonesty, or falsification of GCRMA records
- unlawful use, sale, manufacture, distribution, dispensation, or possession of narcotics, drugs, or controlled substances while on GCRMA or Grayson County premises
- prohibited sexual harassment or offensive or degrading remarks about another person’s race, ethnicity, color, creed, religion, ancestry, national origin, sex, gender, sexual orientation, age, disability, or any other characteristic protected by law
- assault of or verbal threat to a fellow Employee, officer, agent, or customer
- criminal conduct
- failure to address a recurring problem for which the Employee has already been disciplined
- unprofessional conduct or behavior that negatively impacts the GCRMA’s public image, credibility, or integrity.

The GCRMA may, but is not required, to take corrective action to make an Employee aware of a problem related to the Employee’s conduct and to provide an opportunity for the Employee to remedy the problem. Such corrective action may include an oral conference, a written warning, and/or suspension. However, nothing herein shall limit the GCRMA’s right to terminate an at will employee at any time, for any reason, with or without cause or notice.
